Dinner was served by the host Church in the dining room.

B. Sunday Morning Session:

Sunday School was opened and conducted by Brother Luther Hunter, Superintendent of the Sunday School Fayetteville Street Baptist Church. There was a fifteen minutes intermission.

MID-YEAR SESSION

March 29, 1969

The 1969 Midyear Session of the Woman's Auxiliary united with Wake Association and the Association Union was held with the Fayetteville Street Baptist Church, Reverend B. W. Lewis, Pastor; in Raleigh, North Carolina. The Theme: "Christian Education".

The program began with the President, Mrs. E. M. Trice, presiding. Our call to worship was in the following order. Opening hymn, "Guide Me Over" was sung by the Wakefield Baptist Church Choir and audience.

The President greeted the audience in the name of the Lord. In her greetings she stated "Our touch with God should be the greatest and admonished all to keep in touch with Good". "Blessed Assurance" followed the greetings. The Wakefield Baptist Church Choir rendered exotic music throughout the service.

Responsive reading led by Mrs. Evelyn Jones, second Vice President of the Woman's Auxiliary and from the Olive Branch Baptist Church. The Scripture was read by our President, Mrs. Trice; Prayer by Mrs. Iola Blount of Oberlin Baptist Church and response by the Choir.

"Echoes from the Field" was the next program item. More than twenty Senior and Junior Circles brought greetings from their home Circles and reported progress in their mission work. "Take Time to Be Holy" followed "Echoes from the Field" and brought us to the time for the message of this session.

The introduction of the Speaker was very well done by our Vice President Mrs. M. P. Taylor. The speaker Mrs. Annie M. Evans of Fayetteville State Teachers College, attended A.&T. State University and received a Masters Degree from New York University, N. Y.. She has taught in Public School and Church School and is presently employed with the Woman's Division of Job Corp.

Mrs. Evans brought greetings from First Baptist Church of Fayetteville, N. C., Pastor Reverend C. R. Edwards. The theme she used was "Christian Education In Times Like These". She stated that, "These are interesting times and that everyone should be interested in times like these. We don't actually know what times like this mean. More than seventeen million (17) boys and girls are growing up without any Spiritual Guidance. Thirty seven million youths under twenty five do not attend church of any kind, yet eighty five percent of crimes are committed by youths under twenty five. America is the most criminal nation in the world. With all the governmental improvements, achievements are in shadows. What is wrong? We have neglected Christian education. Our homes are just filling stations, we fill up and go. There is no time for family prayer, conferences, etc. Our school requirements are: 1. registration; 2. graduation 3. commencement. Our School of Christian Education requires 1. Registration – We must be born again; 2. Teachers– We must be teachers of His word – Christian desciples as set forth in Matthew 28-19-20 verses. 3. What is taught

What soever I command you to teach; 4. Whom – All people, 5. Where – All nations and people.

Christ' curriculum for Christian education is all over the Bible. The book of Matthew has a good curriculum. We are playing church. His teachings tells us, "Thou Shalt Not Steal," "Thou Shalt Not Committe Adultry," "If Your Eyes Offend You Pluck it Out," "If Compelled To Go One Mile Go Two," "Love Your Enemies'," "Teach Others To Pray," "For Where Your Treasure IS Your Heart IS," "Ask And It Shall Be Given, Seek And You Shall Find, Knock And The Door Will Be Open Unto You."

When you teach God's word you should bridge the gap between the Old Testament and the New Testament. Tie together the Old Generation and the New Generation. You can't witness something you don't know. You must know Christ to witness him.

A Charge to Keep I Have A God to Glorify

You have got to give an account of your stewardship.

The message was splendid. It was dynamically and spiitually delivered.

"We Have Come This Far By Faith," followed the inspirational message.

Mrs. Taylor commented on the wonderful message. She asked the audience, "Where are we going from here? Let not this message die.,, "Leaning On The Everlasting Arm,, was sung while Mrs. Lovie Mayatt of Juniper and Mrs. Bobbie Banks of New Providence took an offering of $54.45.

March 30, 1969

We the Committee on Time and Place wish to make the following report.

AUXILIARY

September 29, 1968

The 49th Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary met at the First Baptist Church in Franklinton, North Carolina.

The meeting was opened by the President, Mrs. Edith Trice presiding. The opening song was "Blessed Assurance". Remarks were then given by Mrs. Trice. She welcomed the sister churches and thanked Reverend Lockly and his members for being the host church. "Just As I Am" was then sung afterwards Mrs. Evelyn Jones lead in reading the Responsive Reading. Mrs. B. Bridgeman of Jones Hill Baptist Church read the Scripture followed with prayer by Mrs. Dorothy Jones of Rolesville New Bethel. Mrs. Evelyn Jones second vice president called for Echoes from the Field. The following churches responsed. Jones Hill, St. Matthew, Rolesville, New Providence, Pleasant Grove, Springfield, Malaby Cross Road, Good Hope, Franklinton First Baptist, Bethlehem. Juniper Level and Olive Branch.

"My Faith Looks Up to Thee" was sung then. Mrs. Trice introduced the speaker who was Mrs. Luella Edwards of Fayetteville, North Carolina. Another hymn was sung. Then our speaker for the day spoke to us. Her subject was "Needs for Living in Times Like These".

The highlights in her speech were·

1. We are afraid of changes
2. There are changes in so many places such as: in our schools, our government, in our homes and even in ourselves.
3. People are not serious enough. We used to be able to differentiate between a Christian and a non-Christian but because they both live the same life it is hard to tell now.
4. Crime and violence is everywhere.

She stated we are confused about things that have changed. We should produce changes. But one thing that never changes is God. Mrs. Edwards named things we should get or we need in times like these, (1) Christ, (2) our Bible, and (3) an anchor.

After the speaker "What A Fellowship" was sung.

Offering taken was $61.17.

The different Auxiliary reported to Mrs. Jones. Delegates reported $166.00. On Saturday delegates reported $53.00. Saturday rights program Jr. $20.78.

Total raised for the Auxiliary for September 28 through 29, 1968 was $300.95.

President: Mrs. Edith Trice
Acting Secretary: Mrs. Evelyn Jones
